

FALL 2016 MIDDLE SCHOOL STEM & SAILING PROGRAM

A RECREATIONAL & EDUCATIONAL SAILING PROGRAM IN HARTLEY SAILBOATS

The STEM program will be implemented as a supplemental activity to grow students' scientific understanding of sailing. STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering & Math) activities are hands on science experiments that teach sailing principles.

Open to all students (grades 6-8)

8-WEEK Fall Program

Thursdays; 4:40- 6:40 pm on the following dates:

September 8, 15,22,29 (USSCMC)

October 6,13,20,27

Program fee includes

- Sailing Instruction on the water & in classroom
- STEM projects on the water & in classroom
- Program meets whether RAIN or SHINE

Space is limited to 16 students

Program fee:

$160*/person (USSCMC Family Membership)

$260*/person (non-member)

Register Online

*Please note:

Participation requirements are as follows: registration with the program, commitment to attend all sessions and a desire to prepare for High School Sailing. Prior sailing experience is NOT required.

8th Grade students may register separately for High School Sailing. The programs are independent of each other.